“Application”) filed by Crowe & Dunlevy, P.C. (“C&D”), counsel to West Houston Memory, LLC, in the above-captioned case. Upon considering the Application, the representations of counsel, and all matters on file, the Court finds and concludes that the fees and expenses set forth in the Application are reasonable and necessary and good cause exists for the allowance thereof. It appearing that all necessary parties were served with notice of the Application, that no further notice need be given, the Court noting that no objection or responsive pleading was filed, and that cause exists to approve the Application and authorize payment of the requested compensation and reimbursement of expenses set forth in the Application. Therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and has the authority to enter this Order allowing fees and expenses pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b) and 11 U.S.C. §§ 330 and 331.
2. Notice of the Application and the objection deadline were proper and provided to all parties entitled thereto and no further notice need be given.
3. The fees requested in the Application are reasonable and necessary as contemplated and required by 11 U.S.C. §§ 330 and 331.
4. The Application is hereby GRANTED and APPROVED on a FINAL basis, as set forth herein.
5. C&D shall be and hereby is allowed fees for the Application Period as follows: compensation for services rendered in the amount of $146,593.50 and expenses in the amount of $6,692.34, for total compensation in the aggregate amount of $153,285.84 (collectively, the “Allowed Claim”).

6. The Debtor is hereby ordered and directed to pay C&D the unpaid portion of its Allowed Claim within ten (10) days of entry of this Order.

7. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and/or enforcement of this Order.
